The 70th Western National Angus Futurity and 49th Western Regional Junior Angus Show excitement will be at an all-time high as we celebrate in Reno, Nevada on April 6-8, 2023. The 2023 edition promises to be one of the best junior Angus events ever. Your opportunity to complete, develop friendships and visit with juniors from throughout the West is just around the corner. Mark your calendar for April 6-8 and plan to be with us for this exiting and fun event. Please note all the specific information for the show in this section. You will also need to review the General Rules as they apply to all the shows listed in this booklet and on the NJAA website.

Applications for registrations and transfers of ownership must be recorded in the sole name of the exhibitor by March 1, 2023.

Check with your local veterinarian for rules concerning entering the state of Nevada and returning to your home state. If you have any questions about this you may call the Nevada State Veterinarian's office at (775) 353-3718. Please note the trucking and brand inspection papers needs. Note: The state of Nevada requires a test for Trichinosis on bulls. A complete set of health rules will be sent in the confirmation letter.

2023 Western States Angus Auxiliary Scholarship Information

#1 - Western States Perpetuating Memorial Scholarship

One; $500.00 scholarship will be awarded to a deserving applicant. The Western States Angus Auxiliary offers an annual memorial scholarship, created as a way to remember those Angus enthusiasts who have passed away. This scholarship is designed to help junior Angus members with upper division education expenses. When Angus enthusiasts pass on, friends and family can make a donation to the Western States Angus Auxiliary Scholarship Fund in the name of the individual who has passed away. The money generated by these donations grows this scholarship fund. This scholarship is open to Junior Angus members from:

Alaska, Hawaii, Idaho, Oregon, California, Montana, Nevada, Utah, and Washington. Applicants must be members of the National Junior Angus Association and/or the American Angus Association and have been active junior members in local, regional, and/ or national junior Angus events or activities. Interested Junior Angus members from the Western States who are graduating from high school this spring, may apply by submitting a typed, 250 word, double spaced, essay entitled "What My Black Angus Project Means To Me".

Send your essay to the Scholarship Chair listed below. Applications must be postmarked by US Mail or emailed by April 1st of the year applying (either submission option is acceptable). Applicants must include their name, address and age in the top right hand corner of the first page of their essay. Presentation of this scholarship will be made at the Western National Angus Futurity during the Western Regional Junior Angus Show in Reno, Nevada. Applicants need not be present to win.

Recipients must submit confirmation of enrollment to the scholarship chair before check is issued.

#2 & #3 - Western States Angus Auxiliary Scholarships

Two; $500.00 scholarships will be awarded to two deserving applicants. The Western States Angus Auxiliary offers two scholarships to graduating high school seniors who plan on attending a college, university or trade school in the fall of this year. These scholarships are open to Junior Angus members from: Alaska, Hawaii, Idaho, Oregon, California, Montana, Nevada, Utah, and Washington. Applicants must be either members of the American Angus Association and/or National Junior Angus Association and have been active junior members in local, regional, and/ or national junior Angus events or activities. Interested Junior Angus members from the Western States who are graduating from high school this year may contact the Scholarship Chair listed below for an application form. US Mail postmark or email deadline is April 1st of the year applying (either submission option is acceptable). The presentation of these scholarships will be made at the Western National Angus Futurity, during the Western Regional Junior Angus Show in Reno, Nevada. Applicants need not be present to win.

#4 - Western States Angus Auxiliary & Nugget Hotel / Casino Education Scholarship

This scholarship was established by the Western States Angus Auxiliary with a gracious contribution from the Nugget Hotel & Casino in Reno, Nevada. This scholarship is specifically designed to encourage current and former junior Angus members to continue their upper level education. One; $1,000.00 award is given to the most deserving applicant. (Amount can vary) Applicants must be between the ages of 18 and 26 and enrolled in a college, university, or trade school, attending their second, third, fourth or fifth year of upper division schooling the fall of the year they are applying. This scholarship is open to current or former Junior Angus members from: Alaska, Hawaii, Idaho, Oregon, California, Montana, Nevada, Utah, and Washington. Applicants must be either members of the National Junior Angus Association and/ or the American Angus Association and have been active junior members in local, regional, and/ or national junior Angus events or activities. Previous WSAA Scholarship applicants or recipients, as well as those who have not previously applied, are eligible. There is no application form for this scholarship but applicants must submit a typed, 350 word, double spaced essay, entitled "What roles will education and Angus cattle play in my future?" Applicants must include their name, the name of the institution they are currently attending, current year in school and best mailing address in the upper right hand corner of the essay. US Mail postmark or email deadline is April 1st of the year applying (either submission option is acceptable). Presentation of the scholarship will be made at the Western National Angus Futurity, during the Western Regional Junior Angus Show in Reno, Nevada. Recipients must submit confirmation of enrollment to the scholarship chair, before check is issued.

Applicants need not be present to win.
